On Tap at the NAMM Show:

PianoDisc Brings Michael Andrew to NAMM Stage

PianoDisc will sponsor a NAMM Show appearance by singer Michael Andrew and The Atomic Big Band. Andrew and company will perform on the Anaheim Convention Center stage on Thursday afternoon, immediately following the NAMM Show Tribute that begins at 5:00 p.m.

Among Michael Andrew's credits are film and television appearances, an 18-month engagement at The Coconut Club at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, and two years starring at the Rainbow Room in New York. Currently, he is busy writing the Broadway musical version of "The Nutty Professor" in collaboration with the film's original writer/director/star, Jerry Lewis. Andrew will play the Prof. Kelp/Buddy Love role and also produce the show, which is scheduled to open on Broadway in 2009.

Andrew recently filmed two High Definition PianoVideos for PianoDisc, Michael Andrew in Concert and Michael Andrew After Hours, both featuring songs from the American Popular Songbook. Included on the videos (which play a live piano accompaniment to Andrew's vocals) are "Mack The Knife", "Come Fly with Me", "One for My Baby" and "Scotch & Soda".

Accompanying Andrew in the videos is pianist Sam Sorensen, who will appear with Andrew throughout the NAMM Show in PianoDisc's booth and on the Convention Center stage.
